

I understand that the FCC is considering the elimination of the do not call list. I oppose this decision & do not want marketers calling my home & disturbing me. Let them advertise in print & TV & radio. Calling me at home will make me not want to buy their product.